

You could win a customizable vacation to San Diego, California worth $2,000 through our ITT office just by eating lunch at Los Pistoleros. Every time you purchase your lunch between 25 January 2012 and 23 March 2012 gets you one step closer to an exciting vacation you can design yourself. Playing is easy, simply pick up a "Close-to-the-Border" punch card and have it punched every time you eat lunch at Los Pistoleros. Turn in completed punch cards after three lunch purchases to receive one entry in the Close-to-the-Border Getaway drawing.

Official Rules: Only one punch per person per day regardless of the quantity of meals purchased. Punch cards are user specific and may not be combined with the cards of other patrons. Punch cards must be validated at the time of purchase. Punch cards carry no cash value and are not redeemable for cash. Punch cards are non-transferrable and can only be used for entries into the Close-to-the-Border Giveaway. The grand prize entitles the winner to MHAFB ITT credits valued at up to $2,000 for a customizable vacation to San Diego, California. Credits, used or unused, carry no return cash value and may only be redeemed through MHAFB ITT. Credits must be redeemed by 30 September 2012. Credits may be used for airfare, hotels, and tourist attractions. Credits may not be used towards food or alcohol. Winner is responsible for any and all taxes not part of the package price. The following 366 FSS affiliates and their family members are not eligible to win: Gunfighter Club employees; FSS Commander, FSS Deputy Director, Community Center employees.
